When TBE congregant Gerry Ginsburg came to me several years ago to toss around some ideas he had about professionally transitioning, his choice came down to two of his great passions: Judaism...and wine. Fortunately, he ruled out another passion - playing linebacker for the Patriots. But when you think about what he has accomplished in his pursuit of rabbinic studies, I wouldn’t have put it past him to succeed as a linebacker too.

In fact, Gerry, who was ordained on April 16 by the Academy for Jewish Religion following many years of study, has proven to us that Judaism is much like a fine wine; it grows even better with age and never stops changing. He’s a rare vintage himself, as Gerry has set a marvelous example of how one can continue to grow through all the seasons of life. His congregational family has marveled at his perseverance (and Fran’s tool), his desire to excel and to make a difference - and most of all, his passion for learning and leadership. Truth be told, Gerry has been making a huge difference in our Jewish community for decades, leading minyans, being president of our Men’s Club, serving on our ritual committee and participating in any number of mitzvah activities. When he made his decision to go for the rabbinate, while on one hand it was surprising, it was not completely shocking.

So, the first great lesson of Gerry’s rabbinate has already been taught through his example. But that is only the beginning. While many of his rabbinic contemporaries are contemplating retirement, Gerry is not ready to become emeritus on the day after his ordination. He has so much to teach and so many to help. At TBE, he often leads shiva minyans, and without exception, families tell me afterwards how compassionate and helpful Gerry was. And now, he has agreed to help us out next year, handling some pastoral, liturgical and educational responsibilities, now as a professional rather than a volunteer. I’m honored that he will be doubling the rabbinic population of our staff!

Gerry, Fran, Ruth and Sam have long mastered the art of leading by example, and the example that Gerry is now setting has placed the bar extremely high indeed. Mazal tov to Gerry and his family!

The Community is Invited - TBE Film Screening

Tuesday, May 7, 7:00pm

7:00pm: Special Introduction by Dr. Samuel Kassow
7:30pm: Film Screening followed by “Q and A”

Dr. Samuel Kassow is the Charles H. Northam Professor of History at Trinity College and author of the award winning book, Who Will Write Our History? The Secret Archive of the Warsaw Ghetto.

I hope you had a wonderful, not-too-crumby, Passover and have been having a fabulous spring! Here is a sampler of what Sisterhood has been up to over the past few months.

Todah Rabah to Sisterhood volunteers, Amy Fishkowski-Benjamin, Lisa Grove-Raider, Paula Schumman, Judy Schneiderman, and Donna Wolff, who helped serve lunch and greet congregants at the fabulous Men’s Club Shabbat on March 2\textsuperscript{nd}. We had lots of fun at the Purim Carnival which was co-funded by Sisterhood (with the Men’s Club) – nice hat Cantor! It was great to see so many smiling faces and parents taking a break to schmooze.

Historian Mark Albertson spoke to a crowd about the extraordinary Golda Meir. There were many insightful questions and lingerers afterwards. Todah Rabah to organizer Karen Resnick.

Todah Rabah to Betty Baer, Mindy Rogoff, Barbara Berman and Karen Resnick for their assistance organizing the Passover food sale. As you know, a portion of the proceeds from the sales are used for Religious School education and Sisterhood programming.

Our gratitude to Cantor Magda Fishman on leading the seder and kudos to co-chairs Sue Greenwald and Irma Ross and their committee of such passionately dedicated women who created such a warm, happy environment for us. Sisterhood underwrote the cost of the Passover Haggadah and Seder Plates used at this year’s Women’s Passover Seder.

Many of us had a blast in the planning, donating and selling at Sisterhood’s first-ever Baubles, Bangles & Beads Fashion Accessories Bazaar. Todah Rabah to Dora Salm for her inspiration and leadership, and to volunteers Sue Friedan, Sari Jaffe, Linda Koppel, Renee Pfefer, Paula Schumman, Suzanne Fruthandler, and Beth Silver (and others who I am not aware of at the time of printing). Our deepest gratitude to those who donated jewelry and accessories that raised money for future Sisterhood programs and for the donations of women’s office attire for Dress for Success. Some of you asked what we will do with the jewelry and accessories that were not sold. Some have been donated to Dress for Success and the rest will be donated to senior memory care homes in Fairfield and New Haven Counties. Mitzvahs galore!

My personal thanks to Sisterhood Board members Barbara Berman, Juli Harris, Karen Resnick, Judy Schneiderman, Beth Silver, and Donna Wolff for their hard work organizing the gift shop inventory to prepare for our move to make way for the elevator construction. For those of you who picked up a bargain at our blowout sale, congrats! The gift shop will continue to operate with offerings tailored to your needs – stay tuned for details.

Upcoming events in the spring include (details to follow):

- Friday, May 10 - Sisterhood is once again sponsoring the Mediterranean Shabbat musical service.
- Sunday, June 2 – Mah Jongg Tournament! We decided to move the date to Sunday so that more players could attend.
- Saturday, June 8 - Sisterhood Shabbat and Luncheon - led entirely by women. Torah readings are filled (Todah Rabah to Carol Krim), but we still have aliyah slots, Hebrew and English readings – something for everyone! If you are interested in participating, please contact Carol Krim at carolbkrim@gmail.com for aliyah readings, or Leslie Heyison at lheyison@gmail.com or 203-964-9386 for any other parts.

On behalf of Sisterhood, with appreciation and joy,

Leslie Heyison

We Capture Your Precious Memories on Video...

Weddings • Bar/Bat Mitzvahs

Proud to be the official TBE videographer

Tom was able to capture the spirit and joy of our B’nai Mitzvah service and party in a video we will always treasure. He was also a pleasure to work with from start to finish.

Jared Finkelstein

If you are looking for a videographer, look no further! Tom was a delight to work with and the finished product was incredible. He created separate videos of my daughter’s Bat Mitzvah service and celebration and captured all aspects of the joy of the day.
